

Ms. Scaccia's Weekly Update

April 16, 2018

Language Arts:

Phonemic Awareness: syllables review

Phonics rules: Magic e*

Magic e hops over one consonant and changes the vowel sound from short to long.

Sight Words: were, three, funny

Reading strategy: multiple meaning words

Reminders:

This Week:

4/12 EOG testing for Grades 3, 4, 5*

Testing dates are April 12th, 16th, 18th, 19th, 23rd, and 34th

*Our schedule is different on testing days.

Math:

We will begin unit 6. We will continue to work on fact families to help with fact fluency. We will also continue to work on story problems, adding a new type— see the example:

John has three more cars than Bob. Bob has three cars. How many cars does John have?

Social Studies/Science:

We will continue our unit on plants.
